

ECONetwork

ideas lounge

Norwegian Church Cardiff
21st May / 15.30 - 20.00

idea

The Ecodesign Centre invites you to listen, engage, debate and share your ideas on what sustainability means for you, your clients and your business.

We want to start building creative ideas on how the Welsh Design community can share knowledge and expertise on ecodesign and sustainability issues. We need your help to re-think and re-do.

agenda

- 15.30 - 16.00 : Arrival and coffee
- 16.00 - 16.05 : Introduction
- 16.05 - 16.35 : Jonathan Crinion
- 16.35 - 17.05 : Guy Robinson
- 17.05 - 17.40 : Q&A - debate - Challenge
- 17.40 - 18.30 : Food !!
- 18.30 - 20.00 : Facilitated workshops

speakers

Jonathan Crinion is the past Director of Communications for the Chartered Association of Canadian Industrial Designers and in 1987 he took a sabbatical to work in London with Foster and Partners. He remains the President and Director of Crinion Associates, a company that has evolved into ecological research, planning and design. In 2008 Crinion developed and registered the concept of Holistic Design Ecology.

Guy Robinson is co-founding director of Sprout Design - an design agency that specialises in sustainable design and inclusive design. Guy has worked with MAK Architects, Lever Fabergé Italia, DCA Design Consultants, Studio and Partners among others. Guy has spent a year as a Research Associate at the Helen Hamlyn Research Centre for Inclusive Design at the Royal College of Art.

Ecodesign
Centre Wales
Canolfan
Ecodydylunio
Cymru

Llywodraeth Cynulliad Cymru
Welsh Assembly Government